RE: Case #95-21
Robert Meyer

Dear Dr. Schoenrock:

Please be advised that its meeting on April 19, 1995 the Board determined that a fine of $500.00 be imposed for your unprofessional conduct in violating N.J.S.A. 45:1-21(e). Specifically, the Board found your delivery of a frozen cadaver to Mr. Meyer's residence, without insuring that the consumer or other responsible individual was there to take custody, demonstrated a lack of professional judgment.

You are hereby afforded the opportunity to dispose of this matter without a hearing and without recourse to litigation by executing the attached form and returning it to the Board within ten (10) days together with your remittance made payable to the Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners in the amount of $500.00

If you wish a hearing in this matter, you may request same within ten (10) days of the date of this letter. At the time of hearing, you may appear with counsel of your choice and with witness and documentary evidence. If no request for a hearing is received within the period stated above, the Board will make its determination on the evidence in the record and will take such action as may be allowed by law.

If you request a hearing, the Board will not be bound to the terms stated in this letter, and may, after presentation and evaluation of all the evidence presented, impose any of the sanctions contained in N.J.S.A. 45:1-22 which include revocation or suspension of licensure, and assessment of penalties up to $2,500.00 per violation. You should also be aware that the Board may assess civil penalties in an amount greater than that herein offered in settlement. Additionally, the Board may, if the facts warrant, enter an order requiring the restoration of any monies acquired by unlawful acts, the payment of all costs involved in this matter and may direct that you cease and desist from the continued practice of acts found to be unlawful by the Board.

If you do not reply to this letter within the required ten (10) day period, then the Board may assess additional penalties pursuant to N.J.S.A. 45:1-21, based on the fact that you have failed to respond to official Board correspondence.

Very truly yours,

Charles A. Jarousek
Executive Director
